Highlights

Split to Dubrovnik

Korčula

Located on the island bearing the same name, this town has beaches, old buildings and fascinating legends; a perfect mixture for an interesting, but still relaxing, vacation.

Split

Home to Diocletian's 'retirement' palace remains, Split is a bustling center of culture, art and tourism. The streets of the palace are now filled with little shops of all kinds, unique bars and restaurants.

(Don't forget to ask where to find some of the best gelato!)

Dubrovnik

Dubrovnik is one of the most popular cities to visit in Croatia; and for good reason. The scenery, ancient structures, amazing food and the romanticism of this city speak volumes and justify its status.
